THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 12.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

The St. Louis Republican gives currency to a report that James R. Hood and five other members of the Tennessee Legislature are preparing_articles of impeachment against Governor Brownlow.

During the month of September four hundred thousand dollars worth of tobacco, bonded at one hundred and sixty thousand, was shipped from Richmond to Northern ports. One hundred and seventy thousand pounds of tobacco was shipped from that city to Europe on Wednesday last

A Nashville despatch announces immense frauds in the revenue there. One liquor house had swindled the Government out of $150,000, but they would be obliged to refund.

Colonel Moore, late surgeon general of the Confederate army, is now in Washington, and will appear before the Wirz military court as a witness in behalf of the prisoner.

On Tuesday, Governor Boreman, of West Virginia, issued a proclamation warning the citizens of Jefferson against any further opposition to the Constitution of West Virginia, or violation of its laws, by persisting in holding the election, under the 'assumed authority of the State of Virginia." The Governor claims that Jefferson county is part of West Virginia, and under the sole authority of its constituted government. If there is any doubt upon this subject, he counsels a settlement of the question in a "peaceful and orderly mode, without resorting to violence or force." He orders that any one attempting to hold an election in the county aforesaid, under any other authority than that of West Virginia, shall be arrested and punished, and calls upon the military to sustain him in the execution of this decree.

A grand tournament was held near the hospitable village of Piscataway, Md., on last Tuesday. It was attended by an immense crowd of young ladies and gentlemen from the lower counties of Maryland, and the adjacent portions of Virginia.

The oration was delivered by C. C. Magruder, jr., of Upper Marlboro'.

The following Knights, each the champion of some fair lady, entered the lists as contestants for the chivalric prize:

Knight of Mattawoman—Frank Gardiner, of Charles county.

"Bowling Green—J. M. Bowling,

"Red Plume—Adelbert Gardiner,

"Petomac—Samuel Cox, jr.,

"Black Horse—Lambert Jarboe, Prince George's co. "Golden Cross—Constantine Bowling, Charles co.
"Prince George's—Edgar Cawood, Prince George's co.
"Mt: Auburn, Edgar Gwinn,
"Montezuma—Alfred Jarboe,
"Black Plume—J. E. Latimer,
"Malta—Eliazer Gardiner, Charles county.
"Apacosta—G. T. Brant, Prince, George's county.

"Anacosta—G. T. Brent, Prince George's county.
"Ivanhoe—Robt Neale, St. Mary's county. " Charcellorsville—Albert Tolson, Prince George's co.
" St. Mary's—G. R. Gardiner, St. Mary's county.
" Waverly—W. A. Edelen, Prince George's county.

" Misfortune—W. J. Latimer. "
" Fauquier—T. H. Diggs, Virginia.
" Virginia—John Green
" Loudoun—H. C. Maddox, "

The Knight of Bowling Green was the successful Knight, and he selected as the Queen of Love and Beauty, Miss Joey Magor, of Bryantown. To the Knight of Virginia, the second honor was awarded, and he chose Miss Nannie Bodkin, of Alexandria, for the first maid of honor.

The Knight of the Black Plume, who in the tourney stood third in rank, named Miss Emily Tolley, of Prince George's county, the v second Maid of honor; and the knight of Montezuma, who was next upon the list, chose Miss Ella Belt, of Prince George's county, as third maid of honor.

In the evening the ladies and knights were addressed by W. J. Hill, esq., of Upper Marlboro, and the affair terminated in a grand ball, which continued until the rapidly approaching orient morn bade the dancers haste to their couches, there to dream of captures made in the war of love. Every thing passed off happily, and in the misty and uncertain future, the memory of the bright eyes, and rosy cheeks, and graceful forms, and tiny feet, of those who were at Piscataway, will be the course of pleasant re-

RELEASE OF ALEXANDER STEPHENS AND OTHER CONFEDERATE EXECUTIVE OFFICERS. -Yesterday the President ordered the release, on parole, of Alexander H. Stephens, late vice-President of the Confederacy; John A. Campbell of Alabama, late Assistant Secretary of War, John H. Regan, of Texas, Postmaster General; George A. Trenholm, of South Carolina, Secretary of the Treasury; and Chas. Clark, of Mississippi. The conditions of the parole required of these gentlemen are, that they stall remain within the bounds of their respective States until further orders, and hold themselves in readiness to appear at such place as the President may designate, te answer any charges preferred against them for acts done in rebellion; the parole to be fully discharged, upon a grant of pardon.

Mr. Henry W. Plummer, son of Mordecai S. Plummer, Esq., residing within a few miles of Upper Marlboro was killed on Thursday night last, by the accidental discharge of a gun from his own hands. , 21 11 12 11

MANATER TO GOLD.

NEW YORK, October 12.—Gold, 145%.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.—In the Synod on Saturday last resolutions offered by the Rev. Dr. Hoge were unanimously adopted, declaring that the Synod would continue to hold its separate and distinct organization; denying emphatically the allegation that the Presbyterian General Assembly of the South was organized to aid the rebellion and to perpetuate slavery, and declaring that so far from seeking to subserve any partisan, political or sectional interest, the Church will maintain an organization in which all of like faith, in every part of the land, may unite, and so preserve the most fraternal relations with all branches of the Presbyterian family.

Rev. Dr. Hamner announced that the Southern Aid Society would soon commence opera tions again in behalf of destitute churches in the South. On Saturday the Synod ajdourned to meet on the first Wednesday of November, next year, at Norfolk.

The Presbytery of Sangamon, Illinois, at its meeting at Decatur, in that State, on Tuesday last, passed a resolution denouncing all interference, by the civil or military authority, with the freedom of preaching the Gospel, as an usurpation of the prerogative of the Church; a practical union of Church and State and wholly unwarranted. The resolution further declares that the members of the Presbytery sympathize with their brethren in Missouri, who are now suffering persecution for no other crime than that of preaching Christ.

It is supposed, from the returns so far re ceied, that the Republicans carried Pennsylvania in the election which took place on Tuesday last by about five thousand majority. The election in Ohio, it is supposed, will result in a majority of about twenty-five thousand for Cox, the Republican candiate for Governor, falling off when compared with the vote which was cast for Brough at the previous election, when the Republican majority was somewhere in the neighborhood of a hundred thousand votes.

It is generally understood that, in a few days, an order will be issued from the War Department, authorizing the muster out of the United States service of all colored organizations at present not doing duty. The Secretary of War has ordered five colored regiments to report to Washington to do garrison
